JAKE WALLIN DECLARED NOT GUILTY BY JURY

Sensational Trial Comes to End With Verdict Approved by Those who Heard Evidence

After deliberating from half past three o'clock Thursday afternoon until half past eight Friday morning, the jury trying Jake Wallin for the murder of Lige Hoskins at Crab Orchard last December, returned a verdict into court, finding him not guilty.

The verdict met with the approval generally, of all who had heard the testimony it having been clearly shown that Jake Wallin had shot only when he saw his little nephew being beaten over the head with a pistol by Hoskins.

The charges against Dud Wallin and his son Ernest, will now be dismissed by the Commonwealth.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, this week, were consumed in taking the testimony in the case. Every point brought out was bitterly contested by the attorneys for the defense and prosecution. This was one of the hardest fought cases tried in the Lincoln Circuit Court to a long while, and on account of the interest large crowds were present nearly every day.

Commonwealth's Attorney George D. Florence, County Attorney W. S. Burch, and Attorneys John Sam Owsley, Jr., and M. E. North appeared for the prosecution, while Mr. Wallin was represented by Attorneys J. W. and K. S. Alcorn, Robert Harding and J. Mori Rothwell.

The testimony was concluded late Wednesday afternoon. Judge Hardin allotted two and a half hours to each side for argument. He read his instructions to the jury Thursday morning, which covered the case fully.

Judge Alcorn spoke first for the defense, followed by Mr. North for the Commonwealth; then Mr. Rothwell for the defense followed by Mr. Burch for the prosecution. Mr. Harding closed for the defense and Mr. Owsley for the state. The case was given to the jury at 3:30 o'clock.

The Commonwealth's Testimony

Dr. W. J. Edmiston, who has been practicing medicine for 17 years at Crab Orchard—Was near Baptist church and didn't see shooting and heard shots; was called to attend Hoskins; found him suffering from four bullet wounds; first shot over liver, thought bullet went into liver; another shot was in right hip just above hip bone; another shot in right thigh; turned him over and found a shot in his back; treated him with morphine etc. Hoskins told him he was going to die to do what I could for him quickly. He made a dying declaration which I reduced to writing. He said he was conscious but had no hopes of recovery and was then asked to tell how the trouble happened. Hoskins statement was as follows:

Hoskins Dying Statement

"Dud Wallin came into Riddle's place and said 'I want to see you.' I said 'all right.' He asked me if I was a deputy marshal. I told him I was. He then said his brother Walter said I was following him around to arrest him. I said I did not want to arrest him, that he was one of my best friends. He said 'D—n, if you want to fight, we are your chickens. If you ever kill one of us, you will have us all to kill.' I told him I did not want to bother him, and did not aim to, that we were brother Odd Fellows. When I said that, Walter came between us, and shot me; then I shot Walter and guess I killed him. Then I emptied my pistol and I reckon I hit Dud. I ran out of the door to get out of the way, when Ernest Wallin caught me and cried 'you old S—of—b.' I tried to get away from him but he held to me like a leech. Then Jake Wallin ran up and began shooting at me and I think hit me every shot. Three shots hit me in the body. This happened at Crab Orchard in Lincoln county."

Cross examined Dr. Edmiston said: Statement was made about an hour after I gave him morphine; Joe Magee put the questions to Hoskins for his statement and I took him down at the request of town marshal; used his exact words as nearly as I could. Hoskins made one remark that was not taken down, it was that Dud Wallin had gotten his brother killed. He did not say anything about beating Ernest Wallin over the head with a pistol. Couldn't say for sure which was the fatal wound, but his opinion was it was the one in the back. Hoskins said he received the wound in the back as he went out the door of Riddle's place. He didn't say who gave it to him.

Dr. L. F. Jones testified that Lucien M. Lasley, an eye witness, was dead.

John Riddle who owned the soft drink stand in which the shooting took place, was put on the stand. The court did not allow him to tell of a trouble he had had with Jake Wallin prior to the killing. He was at home when the shooting occurred in his soft drink stand, which he had left in charge of James Herrin and Joe Riddle. He said Walter Wallin in his place several times that day day drinking, and got "tolerable full" as the day advanced; Dud Wallin was in his place several times that day then that day. He talked to the Wallins, but none of them had mentioned Hoskins' name.

Ben Howard—Went into Riddle's place and found Walter Wallin and Cephe Leese playing pool. Walter seemed to be intoxicated. Witness went out on pavement before trouble occurred. Walter was out, too, but went back. No trouble outside. Walter and Hoskins went inside again, Walter going back into the poolroom. Saw Dud Wallin coming toward Hoskins. Dud asked him if he was a deputy town marshal. Hoskins said he was. Dud said to him, 'You needn't be hounding Walter down. We won't have any of his G—d—enemies arrest him. Hoskins said 'I'm not his enemy. Walter is my friend'. Dud said 'we consider it so,' and Dud walked walked back into the poolroom, Hoskins remaining where he was. Saw Walter come out of poolroom door and pull his pistol and went to soft drink counter, had pistol in his hand pecking it against the counter, talking to Joe Riddle and Herrin. Dud was between Hoskins and Walter. Dud and Sam Magee walked up to Wallin; he was "going on", and he took his pistol and slung it around and told them to get away. They stepped off and Magee didn't come back. Dud came back and said something to Walter. Dud wheeled around and commenced talking to Hoskins. He ordered Hoskins to take his hands out of his pockets. He said he wouldn't, and Dud cursed him and told him he would have to take them out and he said he reckoned he would not. Walter was still there, and drew his pistol toward Hoskins. I think that shot hit Hoskins. I reached over and grabbed Walter Wallin's arm. Hoskins then fired. They were very close together, and he hit Walter, somewhere in the breast. Walter began to sink down and Hoskins aimed to shoot him again, when this boy Ernest Wallin knocked his arm down when the bullet from Hoskins' pistol hit me in the leg. The only person shooting were Walter Wallin and Hoskins. Walter shot four times and Hoskins five. Didn't know whether Dud had pistol or not. Lights went out while shooting was going on. Hoskins went out of the door, with Ernest Wallin hanging on to his arm. I heard some voice out there that I thought was Ernest Wallin say "shoot him, G—d—you," or something to that effect. Immediately after that I heard some shots; was in the house and don't know who did the shooting.

On cross examination it was brought out that at the examining trial Howard had testified that he did not know whose voice it was that had called out to Jake Wallin to shoot. It was brought out that Howard, Hoskins and Walter Wallin had all taken a drink of malt together about 15 minutes before the shooting.

James G. Herrin, who was helping Riddle in the soft drink stand didn't know much about the start of the affair; he had his back turned when the first shot was fired, and then dropped behind the counter. He said Walter Wallin was drinking a little. Did not see Dud take any drinks.

Joe Riddle told about the same story, as new facts being brought out by his testimony.

This concluded the testimony on Monday afternoon.

Tuesday's Testimony

Mrs. Hoskins was put on the stand to tell about Lucien Lasley having testified at the examining trial, but she was ruled out, not having been present at that time.

Sam Magee, who was in the room when the shooting occurred, said that Jake Wallin had sent him there to try to get Walter to go home. He said he and Walter were at the counter; Walter had his pistol out; Dud and Hoskins were talking; Dud asked Hoskins if he was an officer, and said he believed he had been following them around all day. Hoskins said he didn't see any reason why he should take them; then Walter told him to take them out, and then the shooting began, he said that in his best judgment Hoskins had fired first; three shots were fired rapidly, and Walter fell to the floor; he said he couldn't say that Walter had fired a shot; didn't see either fire the first shot but from the direction it came he judged it was Hoskins. He saw none of the trouble outside. Jake Wallin came up afterwards and asked what was the matter.

The Commonwealth then introduced County Judge J. P. Bailey and Mrs. A. E. Miller, in order to prove the testimony of the late Lucien M. Lasley, who was a witness to the shooting. Mrs. Miller was the official stenographer who took Mr. Lasley's testimony at the examining trial. The Judge allowed Mrs. Miller to read her transcript of the testimony, over the objection of the defense. Mr. Lasley's testimony said that he was near the Perkins House when he heard the shots. He then saw two men come out of Riddle's place struggling desperately. Soon he saw Jake Wallin come up. He came up behind Hoskins, but went around to his side and then shot three times. Jake Wallin fired his third shot as the two men became unbalanced. He said Hoskins then ran and Jake Wallin fired twice. Mr. Lasley was asked to describe the wounds sustained by Hoskins, which he did.

The defense did not cross examine Mrs. Miller as to Mr. Lasley's testimony, but asked her concerning her transcript of the testimony of "Black Ben" Howard, and asked her to read it.

Dick Hutchinson colored—Told of being in Riddle's place before the shooting. He said he saw Walter Wallin, Dud Wallin and Lige Hoskins in there. Walter Wallin came in out of the pool room while Dud Wallin and Hoskins were talking. Mr. Wallin was telling Hoskins not to follow his brother if he wasn't aiming to arrest him. Hoskins said he wasn't aiming to arrest him. Dud Wallin was telling Hoskins he had always been his friend. Walter Wallin came out of the pool room and had his pistol in his hand. Dud Wallin told Hoskins to take his hands out of his pockets. Witness then went out of the room, and in about a minute heard shots in the house. After the shots two men came out of the door; it was dark, so couldn't swear to who they were, men came out struggling, to middle of road; little man was holding big man by coat; big man trying to get loose, heard five shots in street, couldn't see who man was doing shooting, it was dark.

Cross-examined—Didn't see big man hitting little man on the head; saw big man "wringing" his body as if trying to pull loose; couldn't swear to who they were. After shots in street, Mr. Hoskins came trotting by, with a pistol in his hand. He went into Mr. Sam Tate's, broke his pistol and reloaded.

Mrs. Jennie Tate—Heard last three shots, raised the window and hollered; saw forms on the street; didn't recognize anyone; my husband pulled me in out of the window, saying I would get shot.

Joe Magee—Police Judge, of Crab Orchard, was called but excused with out examination, the court sustaining an objection of the defense that he was without authority to have sworn in Hoskins as deputy marshal of Crab Orchard. The question was threshed out by the attorneys in absence of the jury. It was shown that the statutes make no provision for the appointment of deputy marshals in sixth class cities a rather peculiar omission. The contention of the defense is that Hoskins was without authority to act as deputy marshal of Crab Orchard, at the time of the shooting affair.

Brook Graw—Was working in L. L. Saunders' store at time of shooting. Stepped out to light a street lamp and saw men in the street and heard three shots. Went down the street, to Sam Tate's, met Lige Hoskins, his shirt was torn and bloody; he says "I'm shot, I'm killed." He laid down on floor; had his pistol in his hand. Not cross examined.

R. L. Collier—Was in Campbell & Pettus' store, and heard some shooting, walked to front of store; saw two men near middle of pike; seemed to be in fight; one was hitting the other over the head with a pistol; another man came up and began shooting; the man who was hitting the other over the head was a larger man.

Joe Kidwell—Saw two men come out of Riddle's; Lige Hoskins was hitting at Ernest Wallin. Wallin had hold of lapel of Hoskins' coat; saw another man shoot then, but couldn't tell who he was.

Wiley Singleton—Was with Jake Wallin before shooting, took a drink behind stairway with him; he left after he heard five shots in Riddle's and went out on street.

Cross examined—Couldn't see Riddle's from where they took the drink behind the stairway.

James Hoskins son of Lige Hoskins—Was in Crab Orchard, at Leese & Kidwell's store and heard shooting; came up the street and saw his father with Ernest Wallin hold of him; his father was trying to shake him off; they went out into the street and Jake Wallin came running across and began shooting at him; his father was going away from Ernest Wallin and was going away from Jake, when Jake was shooting; his father did not shoot on the street.

Cross examined—Didn't see his father beating Ernest Wallin over the head; looked like he was trying to shake himself loose from Ernest Wallin.

Otha Catron—Went to Riddle's to get Dud Wallin out; didn't see first shot; heard Dud Wallin tell Hoskins he couldn't arrest his brother Walter; I got out of there then; heard the shots and saw Hoskins come out with Ernest Wallin; saw Jake come and begin shooting; someone hollered "whose that a fighting?" Hoskins seemed to be trying to get away from the boy; heard nothing said by any of the men fighting; Hoskins was knocking and trying to pull loose from Ernest Wallin, it might have been Walter trying to get loose from Hoskins; didn't see any shot fired by Hoskins at Ernest as they came out the door.

The first witness called Tuesday afternoon was Tom Brough, who told of hearing the shooting inside the house. Saw Hoskins come out of house with Ernest Wallin hold of him. Ernest seemed to be trying to trip him, and Hoskins was hitting at him, trying to knock him loose. Saw him hit at him twice with his pistol. Jake Wallin ran over with a pistol in his hand. Testified at examining trial, and since then has received letters about his testimony. Letter has been taken away from him.

The Commonwealth sought to prove that the defendant and another member of his family had met young Brough at night and had taken the letter away from him. Brough told the court that he was unable to tell who the men were who took the letter from him, so the court ruled this testimony incompetent. Brough said that when Jake Wallin first shot, he covered his head with his overcoat, and didn't see the other shots. Hoskins was head and shoulder taller than Ernest Wallin and about twice the size. Hoskins walked up the street after the shooting and Ernest stood there crying. His head was bloody.

Perry White, a bright faced 14-year-old boy, son of Bob White said he was outside Riddle's place when the shooting occurred. He told of seeing Walter Wallin fire at Hoskins and the latter pull his gun and reply. He said the lights went out and he could not tell who was shooting; he could only see the flashes from the pistols in the darkness. Hoskins then came out and Ernest Wallin grabbed him on the back as he went out. Heard Ernest Wallin say "shoot him nuke Jake, he's killed Walter." Hoskins started to run as he slipped out and Ernest grabbed him. Jake Wallin fired four shots.

Cross examined the lad told the same straight story he did on direct examination, and was not budged from any of the material points of his main testimony. The Commonwealth closed with this witness.

Judge Hardin then adjourned court for an hour out of respect to the memory of Mr. S. H. Shauck, whose funeral was held at three o'clock, and attended by all of the court officials.

Defendant on Stand.

Jake Wallin, the defendant, was put on the stand, after court reconvened. He told a straightforward story of the happening of the fatal day in Crab Orchard. How he had come to town to buy Christmas presents for his little children, and delayed home until after nightfall in order to keep them from finding out about the presents. He visited various stores about town, making purchases, and talked for some time with an old lady by the name of Mrs. Leese. Later in the evening he met Wiley Singleton who invited him to take a drink with him, and he did so. While they were together he heard shooting at Riddle's place, and immediately ran over because he knew that his brother, Walter, was in there, though he didn't know that either his brother, Dud, or his nephew, Ernest, was there.

He met Sam Magee in front of Riddle's place, just as two men came out struggling. He asked Sam what the trouble was, he said, and Sam replied that his brother Walter had been killed and his brother, Dud shot. The defendant said:

I saw Hoskins beating my nephew over the head with a revolver; I shot because I had had information he had killed my brother, Walter, had shot my brother Dud and seemed to be doing everything he could to kill my nephew, Ernest. Afterwards I went where my brother was and told them to get a doctor.

Hoskins was a man who weighed about 175 pounds and about 5-11 or 6 feet in height, strongly built. Ernest as a small boy for his age, weighs something like 110 or 120 pounds, and weak physically. I saw him afterward his head was bleeding with blood running down on his clothing; he had three or four wounds on his head. He had no weapon. He is 19 years old, I think.

Didn't recognize who the man was that was beating Ernest over the head, until I fired the first shot. There seemed to have been seven or eight shots fired in the building. I did not shoot until after Sam Magee had told me of my brother being killed inside. Brother Dud was shot in the flesh and a bullet hole was through his clothing, a bullet hole was in the clothing of my nephew, Ernest Wallin. Drove to my mother's, afterward to tell her of my brother's death.

Carried a pistol as traveling salesman and collector, often having a large sum of money in my charge, traveling in a number of different states. Had been perfectly friendly with Hoskins before this trouble.

Had remained in town until after dark to get some toys for the children, to play Santa Claus.

Cross examined—Had been located at Dathan, Ala., and had been home only a few weeks. The court sustained objections to all questions referring to any trouble the defendant may have had with Riddle.

Armed himself before leaving home, as a matter of habit, carried it every day; was not engaged in making my collections around Crab Orchard. Met Walter at Gover's stable. He had a quart bottle of brandy and I took one with him.

Was taking drink with Wiley Singleton when heard shots. I went over to Riddle's because I knew my brother was in there; I had just sent in after him. Met Sam Magee at the door. Ernest Wallin and Hoskins were on pavement as I got to the door. Hoskins fired as they reached the street. I stopped and asked Sam Magee what was the trouble. He said my brother Walter was killed and my brother Dud was shot. I asked him who did it, and he pointed toward Hoskins, who was struggling with my nephew.

Prosecutor Owsley sought to make the witness say which reason prompted him to shoot Hoskins, whether it was because his brother had been killed, or his nephew was being attacked. The witness said that all these reasons had prompted him, but that at that immediate minute, he saw a man attempting to kill his nephew, as he thought, and shot to protect him and save his life. Hoskins' body was sideways to the witness and he could not tell whether his shots took effect or not. Hoskins at no time had his back to witness, during the shooting. Didn't hear his nephew call to witness to shoot him, or say anything. Was not under the influence of liquor; had only two drinks that day. About the fourth shot Hoskins turned toward me with his pistol. "I fired; he did not." Didn't stop to inquire whether his brothers were in fault. In reply to a question whether he had any feeling of personal danger from Hoskins the witness said that instantaneous as Hoskins had killed one brother, shot another and was trying to kill his nephew, was enough to make any man fear some personal danger.

Dud Wallin, a brother of the defendant was the first witness on the stand for the defense when court reconvened Wednesday morning. He told of the day of the killing. He

ICE CREAM FACTORY TO MOVE TO MCKINNEY.

D. C. Sipple to Change Location of Big Plant From London to Lincoln County.

Lincoln county is to gain another important commercial enterprise this week, when D. C. Sipple, who has operated a mammoth ice cream factory at London for the past few years, will move it to McKinney, where it will be run in the future. C. M. Sipple, son of Mr. and D. C. Sipple, will be the manager of the factory, while Mr. Sipple himself will attend actively to the manufacture of the product.

Mr. Sipple's idea in locating the factory in McKinney is to be able to operate both up and down the Cincinnati Southern and the L. & N. railroads. His delivery wagons will run regularly to Stanford for the purpose of securing ice, and delivering ice cream, so that he will have direct connection with both roads, and thus be in a splendid position to command a large field. There is no ice cream factory south of Lexington, and he will be able to take care of a vast stretch of territory from his location at McKinney.

BLOWN UP BY ENGINE

W. C. Tucker Seriously Hurt But Kept Home Folks in Ignorance

W. C. Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Tucker, arrived home last week, from Urbana, Ohio, where he has been in a hospital for several weeks, with an injured leg, as a result of having been in an explosion on the Erie railroad, on which he has been firing for some time past. The engine in which Mr. Tucker was working exploded, tearing up things generally, and doing a great amount of damage. Mr. Tucker was blown out, into a pond, and was seriously injured, being compelled to remain in a hospital for six weeks, while recovering. He kept the home folks in profound ignorance of the accident, until he was recovered sufficiently to return home for further recuperation. It is almost a miracle that he was not instantly killed.

McROBERTS—EMBRY

Popular Couple Wed in Presence of a Few Loved Ones

In the presence of a few loved ones, the words were said Wednesday, which united in the holy bonds of wedlock the hearts and hands of Mr. William S. Embry and Miss Dollie McRoberts. The wedding was a very quiet one, on account of recent bereavements in both families, and the heartfelt wishes for a life of happiness together were all the more sincere by such reason.

There will be found few couples more generally beloved in this community than this newly married pair, and the congratulations and good wishes of everyone will be theirs, as they start on life's journey together.

Rev. D. M. Walker performed the ceremony, the bride being dressed in a blue silk poplin and carrying a bouquet of lilies of the valley. A large number of handsome presents attested their popularity.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John J. McRoberts and one of Lincoln county's best beloved daughters. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam J. Embry, Sr., who has made a fine record as deputy sheriff and is known and liked by everyone.

After the ceremony they drove to the home of the groom's parents, where an informal course dinner was served to the wedding party. Mr. and Mrs. Embry will make their home in an attractive cottage on West Main street, which has been the home of the bride for some time.

A GOOD WOMAN GONE

Mrs. Drucilla Hurst, wife of "Uncle Billy" Hurst, of Rowland, passed away at her home last Friday afternoon, after a lengthy illness of tuberculosis. She was a good woman, a faithful member of the Methodist church and will be missed by a wide circle of friends. Mrs. Hurst is survived by her husband and five children, the youngest being but four years of age and needing a mother's love and care. She was about 45 years of age. Funeral services were conducted at the home Sunday afternoon at half past two o'clock by Rev. J. J. Dickey, followed by interment in the Buffalo Cemetery.

Why Women Are Not RICH.

Man is a millionaire many times over in the possession of blood cells. Woman is not quite so rich, for scientists have proven that the normal man has five million—the woman only four and a half million to a cubic millimetre of blood.

A decrease in number of red blood corpuscles and a person "looks pale"—in fact, is anemic, the blood does not get the right food and probably the stomach is disordered.

Dr. R. V. Pierce found years ago that a glyceric extract of golden seal and Oregon grape roots, queen's root and blondroot with black cherrybark, would help the assimilation of the food in the stomach, correct liver ills and in Nature's own way increase the red blood corpuscles. This medicine he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By assimilating the food eaten the system is nourished and the blood takes on a rich red color. Nervousness is only "the cry of the starved nerves for food," and when the nerves are fed on rich red blood the person loses those irritable feelings, sleeps well at night and is refreshed in the morning.

"I was attacked with a severe nervous disease, which was caused by a disordered stomach and liver," writes Mr. J. D. Lively, of Washington, D. C., "All my friends thought I would die and the best physicians gave me up. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and derived much benefit from same. My case had run so long, it had become so chronic that nothing would effect a permanent cure, but Dr. Pierce's medicine has done much for me and I highly recommend it. I heartily advise its use as a spring tonic, and further advise ailing people to take Dr. Pierce's medicine before their diseases have run so long that there is no chance to be cured."

LANCASTER

A handsome new graded school building is under contemplation for this city.

The Chautauque Circle met on last Saturday afternoon with Mrs. F. P. Frisbie on Water street.

An interesting Easter service will be held by the Junior U. E. Society on next Sunday evening.

The Republicans will hold a mass convention here on April 10th to elect their delegates to the district and state conventions.

A Declamatory Contest will be held here on the evening of May 15th, the competitors to be students in the Garrard schools. The best young lady will be awarded a handsome necklace and the best young man a gold watch.

Mrs. Robert Holcomb died at her home in north Garrard after a protracted illness from tuberculosis, aged 24 years. She leaves a young husband, an 18 months old infant, a mother and several brothers and sisters. She was formerly a Miss Poor and a niece of Merchant, R. S. Brown, of this city.

J. Elmore Robinson sold 100 barrels of corn to the Garrard Milling Company at $1.50 per barrel; the milling firm reserved 100 bushels of this superior grain to be sold in the local market for seed corn at $1.50 per bushel.

B. L. Kelley exhibited in Lexington his five fine varieties of seed corn selling 200 bushels at $2 and could have sold much more, such is the excellence of this Garrard maize. J. H. Lovell sold several wagons of corn to D. E. Rankin at $4 per barrel.

The backwardness of the season has retarded the poultry business as well as all other branches of industry. Some thrifty farmers' wives have so far only about two or three dozen young chicks to their credit, though Mrs. J. M. Cress the champion poultry raiser of this section, reports as many as 150 chickens and a daily gathering of 100 eggs.

Some Garrard farmers are wise enough to improve their barnyard breeds. Carlton Elkin having just received a pen of fine chickens of the Buff Orpington strain from an Indiana fancier and W. S. Embury having added to his poultry a pen of Rose Comb Brown Leghorns, and can soon supply eggs to those who wish for hatching purposes.

V. A. Lear has engaged about 1,500 hams for June and July delivery at from $6 to $7. J. M. Cress, of the Frenchersville section has already engaged 2,000 hams most from Lincoln county farmers at from 6 to 6 1/2 cents to be delivered in June and July. J. M. Cress bought 50 sheep from W. O. Walker at $6 and 12 head from John B. Anderson at $5. J. M. Cress bought 75 hogs in Newcastle, weighing from 100 to 200 pounds at 5 and 5 1/2 cents; the same trader purchased of G. A. Brown 25 200-pound porkers at 6 cents and 35 hogs of the same weight, from Thomas Rice at 5 1/2 cents. Cress and Jones shipped two car-loads of hogs Saturday to Green and Embury at Cincinnati.

That Garrard is the banner tobacco county of Central Kentucky is undoubtedly proven by the fact that a sample basket of 5 pounds was sold at Lexington for 15c per pound, a record breaking price for the nicotine producer. About all the 1911 crop of tobacco has been sold. Sutton and Yates have delivered at Lexington on the 21st 8,000 pounds receiving from 2 1/2 to 30 cents; 4,500 pounds selling at $13.75 to $10; Jas Lackey sold 2,500 pounds at from 7 to 20 cents; Elijah Rye recently sold a crop on the Fayette floors, and J. Mrs. William Hays, of Stanford, was the guest of Mrs. James A. Heasley, for several days. Mrs. Ed Walker and daughter, Miss Mary are in Louisville for a stay. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Arnold of Frankfort are guests of Mrs. Ella Bettes and daughters. Mrs. N. A. H. Marksberry, accompanied her daughter Mrs. Howard Rice to her home in Richmond, Ind. and will make her a visit of several weeks. Mrs. Mary Englehard and daughter, of Stanford have been visiting Mrs. Eliza Farris who is reported very ill. Mrs. Mary May has returned to her home in Enfield, Ill. after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Woods Walker. Mrs. John Langham and little son Branner, of Danville have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Gibbs.

The Transylvania Presbytery will meet in this city on April 9 and 10. The speakers will be the moderator, Rev. Russell Crawford, Revs. Mardock, of Beckhorn and Francis J. Clark, of Danville.

Saturday was an important day in Lancaster as all three millinery establishments had their spring openings with large and fashionable displays of handsome headgear.

Mrs. Eliza Hoskins Farris suffered a paralytic stroke on last Wednesday and because of her extreme age, her recovery is doubtful. Mrs. Farris is Lancaster's oldest and most historic character having been known in Civil War times as the Florence Nightingale of Camp Dick Robinson.

In recognition of her service as a volunteer nurse during the 60's, the Hon. W. O. Bradley and nine other U. S. Senators presented Mrs. Farris with a purse of $1,000. This recovered Lancasterian will reach her 92nd year if she survives till the 23rd of April.

AGED MRS. FARRIS STRICKEN

Mrs. Eliza Hoskins Farris, 91, of Garrard last week, suffered a stroke of paralysis, and because of her extreme age little hope is entertained of recovery. Mrs. Farris was known as the "Florence Nightingale of Camp Dick Robinson" of Civil War times. Senator W. O. Bradley and nine other United States Senators lately presented Mrs. Farris with a purse of $1,000 in recognition of her service as a volunteer nurse during the sixties.

STANFORD PROOF

Should Convince Every Stanford Reader.

The frank statement of a neighbor telling the merits of a remedy. Bids you pause and believe. The same endorsement. By some stranger far away Commands no belief at all.

There's a Stanford case. A Stanford citizen testifies. Read and be convinced. William Mereson, Whitley, Ave., Stanford, Ky., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for a long time and can say that they are true for the neck and kidneys. I also wish to state that I have known many other people here in Stanford that have used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Shugars and Tanners drug store and have either been greatly benefited or been permanently cured of kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McLaren Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents to the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Don Varrick

Will make the season of 1912 at my stable, one mile from Stanford, at $15 to insure a living foal.

Don Varrick is a beautiful chestnut, 1622, by the great Onward Silver 2:05 1/4, by by Onward, by Geo. Wilkes. Onward Silver sold for $25,000, and was as game a race horse as ever went down the Grand Circuit. Don Varrick's first dam by Wilkes' Boy, the sire of a great family of Futurity winners; 2d dam, Mary by Hogg's Grey Eagle, the dam of The Wag 2:15 1/4 and Madeline Patchen, the dam of Rubber 2:10, Billy Wilton 2:20, Winchester 2:19 1/4 and Miss R. 2:30. Don Varrick's dam was the dam of Dr. Connor, that passed a public half mile at Lexington at 16 months in 1:08 3/4, and sold for $1,000 to N. W. Hubinger, of New Haven, Conn.; also the dam of Maggie Lee, that trotted a half mile on same track in 1:11 of 16 months, and sold for $500.

Don Varrick breeds size, speed and finish. His disposition is perfect. Season money due when more is sold, traded or bred to another horse. Will pasture mares at $3 a month, and will take especial care to prevent accidents, but will not be responsible should any occur.

One of the best points in favor of

Foley Kidney Pills is the comfort and relief they give to elderly people. Mrs. R. D. Mettee 301 East 5th St., Owensboro, Ky., is in her 78 year and says: "I heard of Foley Kidney Pills and began taking them, and they commenced to act at once, and to-day my kidneys and bladder troubles are all gone." Shugars and Tanner.

AN ITEM OF HOME INTEREST

Charles Cornley, 307 Maxwell St., Lexington, Ky., has lately been cured of kidney and bladder trouble. He says: "I heard of Foley Kidney Pills and the good they were doing, and after taking them a few days the pain left my back, the tired feeling pressed away, and I am glad to recommend them." Shugars and Tanner.

CARROLL PRESTON 4383

A horse that is distinguishing himself both as a sire and in the show ring. There were few better rings of colts seen in a ring this year than those exhibited at Lancaster, Ky., by Carroll Preston. He is by Preston 922, by Washington 54, by Cromwell 78, by Washington Denmark 61; 1st dam Baby Pence 7012, by Enoch Arder; 2nd dam by Almont Forrest. Fee $25.00 to insure. Carroll Preston is nominated in the Saddle Horse Futurity Stake at Lexington, Ky.

A Permanent Cure For Chronic Constipation

Although those may dispute it who have not tried it, yet thousands of others, who speak from personal experience, assert that there is a permanent cure for chronic constipation. Some testify they were cured for as little as fifty cents, years ago, and that the trouble never came back on them, while others admit they took several bottles before a steady cure was brought about. The remedy referred to is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It has been on the market for over a quarter of a century and has been popularized on its merits, by one person telling another. The fact that its strongest supporters are women and elderly people—the ones most persistently constipated—makes it certain that the claims regarding it as a permanent cure for constipation have not been exaggerated. It is not violent like cathartic pills, salts or waters, but operates gently without gripping and without shock to the system. It contains tonic properties that strengthen the stomach and bowel muscles so that in time medicines of all kinds can be dispensed with and nature is again solely relied on. Among the legions who testify to these facts are J. P. Blankenship, Sharon, Tenn., and Deulah L. Rogers, Kennesaw, Ky., and they always have a bottle of it in the house, for it is a reliable laxative for all the family from infancy to old age. Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 465 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on postal card will do.

Relief from Rheumatism

Try Sloan's Liniment for your rheumatism—don't rub—just lay it on lightly. It goes straight to the sore spot, quickens the blood, limbers up the muscles and joints and stops the pain.

Here's Proof

Mrs. LILLIA THOMAS of Jackson, Cal., writes: "I have used your Liniment for rheumatism with much success."

MARTIN J. TENNIS, 169 16th Ave., Fairmont, N. J., writes: "I was a cripple with rheumatism for two years and I could not move at all; had to be carried from place to place. I tried remedies and could not get better, until I tried Sloan's Liniment. One bottle fixed me up in good shape and now I always have a bottle in the house for my wife and children."

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

STANFORD MAY GET

LOOSE LEAF MARKET

Burley Tobacco Society Preparing To Open Big Warehouses And Local Men Want One

Why not go after one of the Burley Tobacco Society's loose leaf sales warehouses for Stanford?

So far as known in its campaign to handle the burley tobacco crop of Kentucky, the Burley Tobacco Society is making little preparations to secure the crop south of the Kentucky river, and tobacco men in a position to know, say that Stanford will prove an ideal location for such a warehouse being in the center of the burley belt below the river, affording splendid shipping facilities.

Dispatches from Lexington say that with the success of the ten-year pooling plan assumed, the Burley Tobacco Society is now preparing to establish loose leaf markets in Flemingsburg, Maysville, Augusta, Falmouth, Brookville, Carlisle, Nicholasville, and other points in addition to the society's loose leaf market in nine other towns in Central Kentucky. None of these places is suitable located to handle the south of the river crop, so that Stanford stands an excellent location to secure such a warehouse those in a position to know say.

It is said that a delegation of local men will go to Lexington in a few days for the purpose of conferring with President LeBus concerning such a warehouse.

Dispatches from Lexington tell of the Society's plans for the big sales warehouses which the society will open at Lexington, in connection with the big factory to be built.

President LeBus' idea of a modern loose leaf warehouse or market is one that will be able to sell from one to five million pounds of tobacco a day. His idea further is to have such a warehouse constructed that sales may be held in one division one day and another division the next so that the clearing-out process of the tobacco sold will not delay the market as it does at present.

With adequate facilities he believes Lexington will be able to keep four or five sets of buyers busy and at the same time there will be plenty of business for out-of-town loose leaf warehouse.

A normal crop of Burley tobacco in Kentucky is said to be about 200,000,000 pounds a year. Last year Lexington sold 65,000,000 pounds through its present loose-leaf warehouses. It is said that Lexington lost the sale of millions of pounds of tobacco which went to other points because there were no facilities at Lexington for hauling. One shipment of several millions of pounds is said to have gone to Maysville because the Lexington market was congested. Maysville this year proposes to sell from 25,000,000 to 30,000,000 pounds of tobacco and it has not yet a burley loose leaf warehouse. Carlisle expects to have four loose leaf warehouses.

The State Supreme Court of Washington, reversed Judge Ronald, of Seattle, in the case of G. A. C. Rochester, administrator of the estate of W. C. Bell, against the Seattle, Renton and Southern Interurban railway, and allowed a verdict of $17,500, awarded by jury, to stand. Judge Ronald had granted a motion for a new trial. Judge Bell, of Harrodsburg wife and little Julia Lee Rochester, eleven years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rochester of Seattle were three victims of a collision on April 31, 1910. Judge Bell and the little Rochester girl were killed and Mrs. Bell lived only a short time afterward.

LESS THAN HALF MILLION

Was Appropriated at Last Session of The Legislature.

(Frankfort News-Journal)

Less than half a million dollars was actually appropriated by the Legislature of 1912, this not including bills which will increase the expenses of the State government by such items as Confederate pensions and increase in the per capita of the State Asylums for the insane, the feeble-minded and the school for the deaf. The amount actually appropriated, directly, is $184,964, available at once. It is impossible even to estimate how much the pensions for Confederates will cost the State, the Governor estimating $50,000 and others estimate it at $100,000.

Three bills which create new offices will cost the State nothing. The banking department will be paid for by assessment of the State banks and no money will be taken out of the treasury for this purpose. The same is true of the Fish and Game Commission, which will be supported by money paid as license by hunters. The new insurance department will also cost the State nothing, as the insurance companies will have to pay the whole cost and there probably will be a surplus to be put into the treasury.

Appropriation Made

The following shows the appropriations made by the Legislature and approved by the Governor:

Blind School	$50,000
School of Reform	37,000
Eddyville Prison	9,000
Mrs. Cromwell	314
Jefferson Davis	7,500
Old Capitol	15,000
New Capitol	5,000
School for Deaf	750
New Mansion	75,000
State Fair	66,000
Experiment Station	50,000
Board of Agriculture	20,000
Clerk for Treasurer	1,500
Stenographer for Attorney General	1,200
Clerk hire of Secretary of State	10,000
State University	50,000
Eastern Normal	35,000
Western Normal	25,000
Colored Normal	17,000
Confederate Home	13,500
Tuberculosis Commission	15,000
Kentucky Children's Home Society	20,000
Total	$484,964.

DOINGS AND SAYINGS AT CRAB ORCHARD

(By Will G. McKinney)

Crab Orchard Springs and its healing waters, no doubt have cured and healed as many or more invalids as the Biblical pools of the ancient times, of their many different diseases. Crab Orchard has been almost in total darkness, for these many years. The up-to-date, energetic and enterprising proprietors, Willis and Robinson are building an electric plant and they are going to furnish light for the famous summer resort and also for the town. It will be a great blessing not only for the citizens, but to the many different strangers that come within her gates to be healed.

Dr. Will M. Doores, who is now 81 years old, is a fine scholar, deep thinker and a constant reader and is called the bureau of information.

LOST APPETITE AND HOPE

Neglected Cold Caused Complication, Promptly Restored by Peruna.

Mrs. Rosa Boyer.

"I thank Peruna for new life and strength. I send you two pictures, so you can see what Peruna has done for me."

They go to him to settle all arguments and disputes and to be informed on different difficult questions, so he is termed a useful man among men. He is also a good joker. He tells the following: He said once that he attended a Methodist love feast and experience meeting. After several had given in their different experiences there was silence on this solemn occasion for a few minutes. To break the monotony, an ugly, hair-lipped man arose and said "Brothers and sisters, you can see better than I can tell you what the good Lord has done for me. He has ruined me for life. But I am very thankful to be a living, if I am a curiosity of natural history."

Miss Elizabeth Perkins, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Perkins, their first born, was four years old the other day and has mother gave her five dollars in gold for a birthday present. She thanked her very kindly and told her Ma that she wanted to place it in the bank and get a bank book like her Pa had. Her mother agreed for her to do so, so this bright child went all alone and deposited it in the bank, bringing back her great desire, a bank book with her deposit credited in it. No doubt but what little Elizabeth is one of the youngest bank depositors in the state. It would be wise for others to go by this little child's example.

The Danville Messenger has this to say of a popular Lincoln county man: Mr. Lufe Morgan and daughter, Miss Myrtle, of Milledgeville, were in this city yesterday. Miss Morgan came down to do some shopping. Mr. Morgan has sold his property to Mr. W. L. Moser and has bought a very desirable home in the Sandley section of Lincoln county. He will take charge of his new store the first of May. Lufe Morgan is white as snow and true as steel, and the people with whom he comes in contact can trust him. His word is his bond.

INFORMATION WANTED

Concerning Marshall Family in Lincoln By Missourian

Mr. W. M. Paxton, of Platte City, Missouri, who wrote a history of the Marshall family, and is now preparing a supplement to that work, writes that Markham Marshall, a brother of John Marshall the first Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, in this county at an early date and desires to know if local records throw any light on the question of his posterity.

The county court records disclose the fact that his will was probated here July 11, 1803, James Aleorn and George Helm being the witnesses, and the following children are mentioned in the will: Mary Powell, Ann Green, Elizabeth Montgomery and Jane, Charles, James, John, William, and Bailey Marshall. While all knew that many great men have been citizens of Lincoln county, few knew before that a brother of the famous jurist was one of them. If any of the older citizens know anything of the above named children of their descendants, they will confer a favor on Mr. Paxton by writing him the information.

ONE ON GEORGE WILLIS

The Washington correspondent of the Louisville Times, last week printed this one on George Willis, of Shelbyville, the popular Secretary of Congressman Helm:

George L. Willis, who is secretary of the Committee on Expenditures in the War Department, and a highly valued assistant to Chairman Harvey Helm, has his laundry "done separately." For several years a quick-witted Celestial, whose wash-day was "joint" is not far from the senate office building, has been receiving only Mr. Willis' collars. Having to pass by the clock's place the other day, while accompanied by some friends, Willis stepped into the laundry to get his collars. While the Chinaman was getting the collars together, Willis in a mock-serious way "roasted" the whole establishment to his friends in a voice sufficiently loud for the several bequeathed laundrymen to hear.

While Willis was still "complaining" the chief Chinaman appeared with a tiny roll containing the collars. Handing the wee bundle to the customer, the Chinaman inquired: "You washee you' own shirts, eh?"

And since then friends have been calling up Willis over the phone.

ACTUAL STARVATION

Facts About Indigestion and Its Relief That Should Interest You

Although Indigestion and Dyspepsia are so prevalent, most people do not thoroughly understand their cause and cure. There is no reason why most people should not eat anything they desire—if they will only chew it carefully and thoroughly. Many actually starve for fear of eating every good-looking good-smelling and good-tasting food, because it does not agree with them.

The best thing to do is to fit yourself to digest any good food. We believe we can relieve Dyspepsia. We are so confident of this fact that we guarantee and promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who will use it, who is not perfectly satisfied with the results which it produces. We exact no promises, and put no one under any obligation whatever. Surely, nothing could be fairer. We are located right here and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want everyone troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia in and from to come to our store and buy a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home and give them a reasonable trial, according to direction. Then, if not satisfied, come to us and get your money back. They are very pleasant to take; they aid to soothe the irritable stomach, to strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, and to promote a healthy and natural bowel action, thus leading to perfect and healthy digestion and assimilation.

A 25 cent package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets furnishes 15 days treatment. In ordinary cases, this is sufficient to produce a cure. In more chronic cases, a longer treatment, of course, is necessary, and depends upon the severity of the trouble. For such cases, we have two larger sizes which sell for 50c, and $1. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, G. L. Penny.

PIONEER OF OTTENHEIM

Adam Petrey Dies Last Week—A Leading Republican

A life-long resident of the Ottenheim community, and one of its most respected and liked members, passed away last week, when Adam Petrey died at the age of 74 years. Mr. Petrey was a pioneer of that section of the county, having settled there before the first German families moved in. He was a famous ax handle and basket maker and his goods were sold all over this section. About two years ago, he lost his wife. He is survived by two sons, Mack and Simon Petrey.

Mr. Petrey was a valiant Union soldier, and a leading republican of his section. He was a faithful member of the Christian church. He was laid to rest, after services by Rev. John Long, of that church.

HUSTONVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Carpenter are in Cincinnati this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Williams have returned from a delightful visit at Lexington.

Mr. J. G. Weatherford is being strongly urged by his host of friends to run for sheriff. Mr. Weatherford is one of the best known democrats in this part of the county.

Mr. Fred Jeffers and beautiful little daughter, Mary Ophelia, were guests of the Misses Ellis of Moreland last week.

Mrs. J. G. Weatherford and Miss Lucy Alcorn are in Cincinnati this week.

Mrs. Grant North took little Miss Florence North to Cincinnati Saturday where she will have her tonsils removed.

Miss Elizabeth Vermillion of Danville, is guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bishop.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berry, Mrs. Minnie B. Robinson and Miss Jessie Powell, spent last week in Cincinnati.

Miss Minnie Houchins, of Elkhart Springs, was here for a few hours Tuesday.

Miss Bettie Logan has returned from Louisville where she studied the Easter styles and will be pleased to see her former customer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rout visited Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pope of Danville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Tate and Miss Margaret McCormack, motored to Stanford Monday for an hour's shopping.

In this issue of the I. J., Mr. S. M. Owens, of the McKinney section announces his candidacy for the democratic nomination for Assessor. Mr. Owens made splendid records as jailer and a sheriff of this county, and has long been known as one of the most active workers and loyal party men in this part of the state. He has a world of friends who will rally to his support in this campaign which will be decided at the primary in August 1913.

The levees at Hickman and Columbus down in the western part of the state, have broken, and vast sections of land are inundated by the Mississippi. The property damage is terrific. Gov. McCreary has issued a call for help for the afflicted. Congress has been asked for a big appropriation and will doubtless give it to help the sufferers.

THE WALLIN CASE.

said while in Crab Orchard he got word his brother, Walter, was in Riddle's place drinking and went to get him to go home. Saw Hoskins in the place seemed to be looking for somebody. I went to him and asked him if he was an officer; he said he was, and I then told him Walter was drinking and I wanted to get him out to take him home. He said he wasn't hothering Walter. I then saw Walter standing by the counter with his pistol in his hand. I told him to put it up and let's go home. Sam Magee was talking to Walter so I stepped back and saw Hoskins had followed me over with his hand in his pocket. I said to him, 'Lige take your hand out of your pocket; nobody's going to hurt you, and he immediately jerked his hand out of his pocket and fired at me. No shots had been fired in there before that. He shot me in the left side. (Mr. Wallin showed the coat with the bullet holes in it, to the jury; also the wound in his body.) He then told also of Hoskins firing the other shots, and retreating out the door. Didn't see Walter fire; he was behind me.

Ernest Wallin, the young son of Dad Wallin, who was in the Riddle place, and grabbed Hoskins, after he had shot at his father, told how he knocked down Hoskins' pistol and grabbed him. He said Hoskins fired one shot at him as they got out on the pavement, and hit him over the head five or six times with his pistol. The coat he wore at the time, with a bullet hole through it and spotted with blood was shown the jury. Ernest corroborated in every particular the story of the shooting, as told by his father. He gave prompt answers to all questions.

Sam Perkins a boy 11 years old, a son of W. E. Perkins, said that he did not see Perry White until the latter came to the Christmas tree at the church after the shooting was all over.

Isom McClure, the other boy with whom Perry White claimed to have come to town, also testified that the only time he had seen Perry White that night was also at the church.

Sam Magee, Sam Tatem, Jim Jones and Ivon Fish testified that the boy Perry White's character was bad. Police Judge Joe Magee, of Crab Orchard testified that the boy had been charged with stealing, also with shooting and drawing gun on Kenner Farris and associating with negroes in a disreputable house in the Deep Well Woods.

Edgar Edwards, who was in Riddle's place, testified that Hoskins told Dad Wallin, when the latter asked him to take his hands out of his pockets, that if he did so there would be something doing. He said he did not know who fired the first shot.

Harve Edwards—A brother of the previous witness, said that Lige Hoskins fired first at Dad Wallin, when Walter Wallin said that he had never been arrested and never would be. He told of Hoskins hacking out the door shooting as Ernest Wallin grabbed him. He said that Walter Wallin had his face toward "Black Ben" Howard, when Hoskins first shot.

Judge Alcorn read to the jury the testimony of Charles King, and that of Henry Lunsford, absent witnesses as given at the examining trial, they being out of the state now. Both testified that Hoskins fired the first shot.

Hezekiah Howard—Said that "Black Ben" Howard, an eye witness of the shooting in Riddle's had told him the day after the killing in the presence of Berry Howard, that Hoskins had fired the first shot.

Charley Payne—Testified that Hoskins pulled his hand out of his pocket and shot when Dad Wallin told him to take his hand out of his pocket; thought he was shooting at Dad Wallin.

Wm. King—Said he heard "Black Ben" Howard say that the first shot in Riddle's killed Walter Wallin and the next shot hit him in the leg.

Clarence King his brother testified to the same.

SPRING SUITING

My new spring and summer samples are now ready for your inspection. They comprise the best on the market. I can suit anyone as to price who had his clothes made to order. A suit made to your measure is preferable to ready made clothes. To have them made to measure doesn't cost any more than ready made when quality and fit is considered. Come in and let me take your measure.

LIFE NOT WORTH LIVING

In the way Miss Alta Abel of West Baden, Ind., summed up her existence after having sought in vain for health. She writes: "I was a complete wreck—always tired, worn out and nervous. I had to spend about one-third of my time in bed."

"Vinol, your delicious cod liver and iron tonic, was recommended, and I can truly say it has done me more good than all the medicine I ever took in my life. That nervous and tired feeling is all gone. I have gained in health, flesh and strength, until I feel like another person." (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

What Vinol did for Miss Abel, we know it will do for every nervous, run-down, overworked, tired, thin and discouraged woman in this vicinity.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

FORD

Less Than One Cent a Mile.

One-third of the cost of railroad transportation!

That's the record of the Ford Model T—of a whole neighborhood of Fords, in fact.

Read this: "In that short time (June to September) I drove the car 1,850 miles with less than one-cent per mile running expenses, including lights, and no repairs at all. I think that record is good, but I know of several cars just like mine that made just as good records. So I think the Ford 5-passenger, 20 horsepower car is certainly the car for the farmer."

Signed E. W. Seifer, Dundas, Ill.

Country roads are not city pavements, either. Get the point? Ford Model T is the universal popular motor car the world over, because of its universal service and everlasting economy. Every third car made in America in 1912 will be a Ford Model T. Good buying logic for you, eh?

BASE BALL BOYS

Play First Game at London Saturday—Harry Camnitz Coaching

Harry Camnitz, of Hustonville, who bid fair to rival the record of his famous brother, Howard, in the big leagues, until his arm gave out on him, has been secured to coach the Stanford High School base ball team and is putting the players through some fast work during this pretty weather. He has had the youngsters out every day this week, giving them hard practice, and believes that they will be in pretty fair shape for the first game of the season which will be played at London against the Sue Bennett Memorial School team there next Saturday. The only member missing from last year's champion squad is Wallace Singleton, at second, and his place will be readily filled for there are a number of promising recruits.

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I.—Miss Innes, spinster and guardian of Gertrude and Halsey, established summer headquarters at Sunnyside. Amidst numerous difficulties the servants departed. As Miss Innes looked up for the night, she was startled by a dark figure on the veranda.

CHAPTER II.—She passed a terrible night, which was filled with unseemly noises. In the morning Miss Innes found a strange link cuff button in a clothes hamper.

"You must get upstairs," he said firmly. "You and Miss Gertrude, too. This has been a terrible shock. In his own home, too."

I stared at him without comprehension. "Who is it?" I asked with difficulty. There seemed a hand drawn tight around my throat.

"It is Arnold Armstrong," he said, looking at me oddly, "and he has been murdered—in his father's house."

After a minute I gathered myself together and Mr. Jarvis helped me into the living room. Liddy had got Gertrude upstairs, and the two strange men from the club stayed with the body. The reaction from the shock and strain was tremendous; I was collapsed—and then Mr. Jarvis asked me a question that brought back my wandering faculties.

"Where is Halsey?" he asked. "Halsey!" Suddenly Gertrude's stricken face rose before me—the empty room upstairs. Where was Halsey?

"He was here, wasn't he?" Mr. Jarvis persisted. "He stopped at the club on his way over."

"I don't know where he is," I said feebly.

One of the men from the club came in, asked for the telephone, and I could hear him excitedly talking, saying something about coroners and detectives. Mr. Jarvis leaned over to me.

"Why don't you trust me, Miss Innes?" he said. "If I can do anything I will. But tell me the whole thing."

I did, finally, from the beginning, and when I told of Jack Bailey's being in the house that night he gave a long whistle.

"I wish they were both here," he said when I finished. "Whatever mad prank took them away, it would look better if they were here. Especially—"

"Especially what?"

"Especially since Jack Bailey and Arnold Armstrong were notoriously bad friends. It was Bailey who got Arnold into trouble last spring—something about the bank. And then, too—"

"Go on," I said. "If there is anything more, I ought to know."

"There's nothing more," he said evasively. "There's just one thing we may bank on, Miss Innes. Any court in the country will acquit a man who kills an intruder in his house at night. If Halsey—"

"Why, you don't think Halsey did it?" I exclaimed. There was a queer feeling of physical nausea coming over me.

"No, no, not at all," he said with forced cheerfulness. "Come, Miss Innes, you're a ghost of yourself, and I am going to help you upstairs and call your maid. This has been too much for you."

About six o'clock Gertrude came in. She was fully dressed, and I sat up nervously.

"Poor Aunt!" she said. "What a shocking light you have had!" She came over and sat down on the bed, and I saw she looked very tired and worn.

"Is there anything new?" I asked anxiously.

"Nothing. The car is gone, but Warner—he is the chauffeur—Warner is at the lodge and knows nothing about it."

"Well," I said, "if I ever get my hands on Halsey Innes I shall not let go until I have told him a few things. When we get this cleared up, I am going back to the city to be quiet. One more night like the last two will end me. The peace of the country—fiddlesticks!"

Whereupon I told Gertrude of the noises the night before, and the figure on the veranda in the east wing. As an afterthought I brought out the pearl cuff-link.

"I have no doubt now," I said, "that it was Arnold Armstrong the night before last, too. He had a key, no doubt, but why he should steal into his father's house I cannot imagine. He could have come with my permission easily enough. Anyhow, whoever it was that night left this little souvenir."

Gertrude took one look at the cuff-link and went as white as the pearls in it; she clutched at the foot of the bed and stood staring. As for me, I was quite as astonished as she was.

"Where did you find it?" she asked finally, with a desperate effort at calm. And while I told her she stood looking out of the window with a look I could not fathom on her face. It was a relief when Mrs. Watson tapped at the door and brought me some tea and toast. The cook was in bed, completely demoralized, she reported, and Liddy, brave with the daylight, was looking for footprints around the house. Mrs. Watson herself was a wreck; she was blue-white around the lips, and she had one hand tied up. She said she had fallen downstairs in her excitement. It was natural, of course, that the thing would shock her, having been the Armstrongs' housekeeper for several years and knowing Mr. Arnold well.

Gertrude had slipped out during my talk with Mrs. Watson, and I dressed and went downstairs. The billiard and card rooms were locked until the corner and the detectives got there, and the men from the club had gone back for more conventional clothing.

I could hear Thomas in the pantry alternately wailing for Mr. Arnold, as he called him, and citing the tokens that had precurred the murder. The house seemed to choke me, and, slipping a shawl around me, I went out on the drive. At the corner by the east wing I met Liddy. Her skirts were dragged with dew to her knees and her hair was still in crimps.

"Go right in and change your clothes," I said sharply. "You're a sight, and so your age!"

She had a golf stick in her hand, and she said she had found it on the lawn. There was nothing unusual about it, but it occurred to me that a

"O, Aunt Ray! Aunt Ray!" she cried hysterically. "Some one has been killed!"

"Thieves," I said shortly. "Thank goodness, there are some men in the house to-night." I was getting into my slippers and a bath-robe, and Gertrude with shaking hands was lighting a lamp. Then we opened the door into the hall, where, crowded on the upper landing of the stairs, the maids, white-faced and trembling, were peering down, headed by Liddy. I was greeted by a series of low screams and questions, and I tried to quiet them. Gertrude had dropped on a chair and sat there limp and shivering.

I went at once across the hall to Halsey's room and knocked; then I pushed the door open. It was empty; the bed had not been occupied.

"He must be in Mr. Bailey's room," I said excitedly, and followed by Liddy, we went there. Like Halsey's, it had not been occupied; Gertrude was on her feet now, but she leaned against the door for support.

"They have been killed!" she gasped. Then she caught me by the arm and dragged me toward the stairs. "They may only be hurt, and we must find them," she said, her eyes dilated with excitement.

I don't remember how we got down the stairs; I do remember expecting every moment to be killed. The cook was at the telephone upstairs, calling the Greenwood club, and Liddy was behind me, afraid to come and not daring to stay behind. We found the living room and the drawing room undisturbed. Somehow I felt that what ever we found would be in the card room or on the staircase, and nothing but the fear that Halsey was in danger drove me on; with every step my knees seemed to give way under me.

Gertrude was ahead and in the card room she stopped, holding her candle high. Then she pointed silently to the doorway into the hall beyond. Huddled there on the floor, face down, with his arms extended, was a man.

Gertrude ran forward with a gasping sob. "Jack," she cried, "Oh, Jack!"

Liddy had run, screaming, and the two of us were there alone. It was Gertrude who turned him over, finally, until we could see his white face, and then she drew a deep breath and dropped limply to her knees. It was the body of a man, a gentleman, in a dinner coat and white waistcoat, stained now with blood—the body of a man I had never seen before.

It was the body of a man, a gentleman, in a dinner coat and white waistcoat, stained now with blood—the body of a man I had never seen before.

Gertrude was ahead and in the card room she stopped, holding her candle high. Then she pointed silently to the doorway into the hall beyond. Huddled there on the floor, face down, with his arms extended, was a man.

Gertrude ran forward with a gasping sob. "Jack," she cried, "Oh, Jack!"

HATFIELD—FELLMY

Lincoln County Girl Weds Man Of Her Choice in Far West

A friend in Spokane, Washington, sends the I. J. this notice of a wedding in the far west which will be of much interest to the many friends and loved ones of the bride in this county:

Married, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McLaren, 2320 Bridge avenue, March 20, Mr. Hubert H. Fellmy, of Oroville, Wash., and Miss Anna Frances Hatfield, of Stanford, Ky. The bridal couple entered to the music of Mendelssohn's wedding march, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Brynne C. Preston, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church.

The guests were Rev. and Mrs. Preston, and daughter, Flora May, Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Potter and Marjorie, formerly of Berea, now of the Spokane Y. M. C. A., and Mr. and Mrs. Toothaker, also of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. and Mrs. Fellmy leave Saturday morning for Oroville, where they will be given a reception at the Methodist church, of which Mr. Fellmy is a member. They carry with them to their frontier home the congratulations and good wishes of a large circle of friends.

Another friend writes this of the wedding.

Word has been received of the marriage in Spokane, of Miss Frances Hatfield to Hubert Hays Fellmy. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hatfield, of the Mt. Moriah section and is one of the most accomplished and attractive belles, of Lincoln and one of our most efficient teachers.

The groom formerly of Indiana, is a college graduate and has spent a number of years as Boys Secretary in the Young Men's Christian Association, of Chicago, and other northern cities.

The marriage took place Wednesday March, 20 at 8 P. M. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McLaren, Rev. Preston, of the Congregationalist church performing the ceremony.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Potter and daughter formerly of Berea, Ky., Mrs. Preston and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Toothaker and the McLaren family. Mrs. McLaren is a sister of the widely known, Dr. Barclay, of Chicago.

The bride and groom spent a few days with friends in Spokane and reached Oroville, Saturday evening where the Methodist church had a grand reception awaiting them. After Monday they will go to their home, near Oroville, where the groom is the owner of a large farm. He has been one of Washington's most successful farmers for the past two years. He also owns a very profitable tract of land on Graham Island.

While his host of friends welcome his bride into their midst, her many friends here are sorry to give her up. Their many beautiful and valuable presents from far and near, show the great love and esteem in which they are held. Wishing them all joys of a long and well spent life.

A SUBSCRIBER.

IN ANOTHER LINCOLN

The Lincoln County Times, published at Davenport, Wash., says of the gentleman who married Miss Margaret Livingston, of this county: "Claude C. Leete, deputy auditor for nearly seven years, this week announced that he would be a candidate for county auditor subject to the democratic primaries. His announcement is the first of either party for the place. Mr. Leete served as a deputy one year under J. W. Anderson, two years with A. S. Brown, and at the expiration of the term of J. W. Brislawn, will have served four years for that official. He has spent 25 years of his 33 years in Lincoln county. He is married."

GLORIOUS HAIR

For Every Woman Who Wants It

Any woman who neglects her hair cannot expect to have as lovely hair as the woman who doesn't.

Wash the hair once a week, use PARISIAN SAGE daily—keep your hair brush clean and in a few days you will give to your hair a beautiful lustre that you will be proud of.

PARISIAN SAGE is a most reliable hair tonic; so reliable that G. L. Penny guarantees it to eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp, or money back.

It should be used as a dressing by every member of the family because it keeps the scalp clean, prevents hair from turning gray and baldness. Large bottle 50 cents. You will have no use for ordinary preparations after once giving delightful PARISIAN SAGE a trial.

Liddy had run, screaming, and the two of us were there alone. It was Gertrude who turned him over, finally, until we could see his white face, and then she drew a deep breath and dropped limply to her knees. It was the body of a man, a gentleman, in a dinner coat and white waistcoat, stained now with blood—the body of a man I had never seen before.

DANGER PERIOD OF WOMANS' LIFE FROM 45 to 50

Interesting Experience of Two Women—Their Statements Worth Reading.

Asheville, N. C.—"I suffered for years with female trouble while going through the Change of Life. I tried a local physician for a couple of years without any substantial benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I quit my physician and commenced using it with the happiest results. I am today practically a well woman and anxious to contribute my mite towards inducing others to try your great medicine, as I am fully persuaded that it will cure the ailments from which I suffered if given a fair chance.

"If you think this letter will contribute anything towards further introducing your medicines to afflicted women who are passing through this trying period, it is with great pleasure I consent to its publication."—Mrs. JULIA A. MOORE, 17 East St., Asheville, N. C.

The Case of Mrs. Kirlin.

Circleville, Ohio.—"I can truthfully say that I never had anything do me so much good during Change of Life as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Before I had taken one half a bottle of it I began to feel better, and I have continued taking it. My health is better than it has been for several years. If all women would take it they would escape untold pain and misery at this time of life."—Mrs. ALICE KIRLIN, 358 W. Mill St., Circleville, Ohio.

The Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. At such times women may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

WATTERSON AND THE COUNTRY PRESS

(Elizabethtown News.)

Henry Watterson passed long enough in a recent dithrie against Woodrow Wilson to reflect upon the country press of Kentucky. It was a gratuitous, unworthy fling at the most loyal group of democratic editors in this country. It could only proceed from a mind overwrought with its own importance and submerged in conceit. The charitable view to take is that the editor of the Courier-Journal is not himself. He writes like one distraught. His petulance must be the direct result of wounded vanity. His uncontrollable rage has a childishness often seen in the very young, or the very old. It moves its victim to tantrums approaching hysteria. Some of the symptoms are a blind striking out at friend and foe, accompanied by garrulous raving and foul abuse. Mr. Watterson has this disease in its most violent form. The sorrow of it is that his friends cannot restrain him from daily making a pitiful spectacle of himself in the Courier-Journal.

The country press of Kentucky has this to say to Henry Watterson: It cures nothing for his insult. Tomorrow he will be at their feet in servile fawning. The time has passed when they can be elated by his applause, or depressed by his condemnation. They have seen him gradually lose his following in state and country until he is a pathetic figure, rigged out in his regimentals, marching in lonely grandeur, shouting orders to a phantom soldiery, calling vainly to lieutenant that no longer bear his commissions, a Napoleon butting at the barren rods of St. Helena, a general without an army.

When the democrats of Kentucky placed their standard in the hands of James B. McCreary, to be borne, with unflinching courage and high resolve to victory, Henry Watterson not only "limped in the rear" but, with guerrilla tactics, harassed the leader, and by his silence gave courage to the enemy. The county press of Kentucky made generous answer to the appeals of the Democratic candidates and the Democratic Campaign Committee, and by their valiant service caused the desertion of Watterson to be forgotten. They not only elected the state ticket, headed by Gov. McCreary, but sent to the democrats of the nation the heart-warming message that Kentucky would aid in the election of a democratic president.

Not only was the power of the country press exemplified in that campaign, but the useful lesson was impressed upon the democrats of the state that the support of the Courier-Journal was no longer necessary to the triumph of party principles; the rage of its editor need not be feared nor his support be sought in future campaigns.

He has already made it impossible for the Courier-Journal to support Woodrow Wilson, that progressive democrat and high minded patriot, whom he has denounced as "a crook from New Jersey". The enmity and vituperation with which he deluged Grover Cleveland is being poured from the same exhaustless vessel upon the head of Woodrow Wilson. It is a campaign of slander, so baseless and so vicious that every decent man in Kentucky hangs his head in shame, when he contemplates the wrong that is being done a great leader.

The people of the United States must be made to understand that when Henry Watterson speaks such venom out of his mouth, he does not represent the Democracy of this state, but speaks alone from the measureless depths of his own depravity.

HOGWALLOW DOINGS.

(Hogwallow Kentuckian.)

Miss Flutie Belcher has placed her order for a flask of nice perfume and is expecting it any day. Since she has gone and done this there will be no need of any sweet-scented flowers around Hogwallow this spring, except to look at.

It is understood that we are to have another road to run through this place, provided plans do not miscarry. We already have a good road running east and west, and plenty large enough for any sober man to turn around in at any point, and we cannot see the necessity of another one. The fewer roads we have the longer our huggies and wagons will last.

When spring gets under full headway and Poke Enzley can move his chair out on the front porch at the postoffice, the postmaster announces that he will have much more room inside.

Sim Flinders says he believes the surface of the earth is wearing off constantly around the sides, as his land is getting so thin it will hardly hold water.

Tobe Mosely's mule ran away with him during one of his contrary spells last Sunday morning. The animal ran for more than a mile, and in the rounds came within a hairs-breadth of the Dog Hill church barely missing the sermon.

Raz Barlow went hunting Tuesday but met with very poor success, as most of his experience in the shooting line has been at Saturday night dances and barbecues.

Little Fidelity Flinders has got to the unbecoming habit of talking back at himself in the cistern. This indicates very bad raising.

The Excelsior Fiddling Band has been meeting clandestinely for the past several nights under the old sycamore tree on Musket Ridge, practicing up to play for a surprise birthday dinner that is to be given Washington Hooks on the second Sunday in April.

The Editor of the Tickville Tidings has decided to speak unfavorably in his editorial columns about everybody that does not take his paper. He has also begun the job of cleaning out his storm cellar.

The Deputy Constable has had the community frustrated this week by his attempts to apprehend a hog thief in the Cnlf Ribs community. The defendant is of a suspicious nature, and through the Deputy Constable is heavily disguised as a blind man, he cannot get within sight of him. The deputy constable refuses to show the white feather and expects to catch him in one of the large steel traps he has set along the different paths for that purpose.

The physiology class of the Wild Onion school spent a profitable day this week at the bone yard near Rye Straw.

Jefferson Pollocks has started on the job of digging a cistern on his place. In it he expects to keep an extra supply of water to be used for drinking purposes in case of emergency.

Sidney Hooks put on his other pants the other night and called on Miss Flutie Flinders. He would have stayed longer but he did not know what else to say.

On his way home from Tickville Friday night with some cheese Cricket Hicks spent the night at the home of Frisky Hanneck. For protection during the night Cricket set a rat trap in his pocket.

The Two Twins from Cnlf Ribs neighborhood called on our tonsorial artist, Dock Hooks, at the blacksmith shop, and got a hair-cut between them.

If you promise the public you are going away for an extended visit, and then for some reason your plans hang fire and you fail to do so, the public loses confidence in you and will thereafter doubt what you say.

A VALUABLE SUGGESTION

Important to Everyone

It is now conceded by physicians that the kidneys should have more attention as they control the other organs to a remarkable degree and do a tremendous amount of work in removing the poisons and waste matter from the system by filtering the blood.

During the winter months, especially, when we live an outdoor life the kidneys should receive some assistance when needed as we take less exercise, drink less water and often eat more rich heavy food, thereby forcing the kidneys to do more work than Nature intended. Evidence of kidney trouble, such as lame back, inability to hold urine, smarting or low complexion, rheumatism may be weak or irregular heart action, warns you that your kidneys require help immediately to avoid more serious trouble.

An herbal medicine containing no minerals or opiates has the most healing influence. An ideal herbal compound that has most remarkable success as a kidney and bladder remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by mail, absolutely free. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention the Stanford Interior Journal. For sale by all drug stores.

For the season of 1912, I offer for public service the Royally Bred and Handsome Individual Saddle Stallion, ALL PEAVINE 4092, at my farm, near McKinney, Ky., at $25 to insure a living colt.

ALL PEAVINE 4092

SIRE, REX PEAVINE 1796; A champion show horse and an unequalled champion sire. From him we have had such champions as Edna May, Golden Glow, Jack Straw, Queen of the May, Star Peavine, and many others past and to come. By Rex McDonald—Daisy 2nd by Peavine 85.

GRAND SIRE, Rex McDonald 833. The undisputed champion show horse and sire. FIRST DAM, Lucy Wells 6404, by Peavine 85. A great brood mare by the world's greatest brood mare sire, Peavine. His daughters have produced such champions as Lou Chief, Cleopatra, The Frenchman, Edna May, Bathenia McChord, and dozens of others. A mare by Peavine is a sure foundation.

SECOND DAM, daughter of Harris Denmark.

THIRD DAM, daughter of John Mosely.

If you want to breed to a stallion whose produce commands the highest price, breed to All Peavine 4092. The prices for which I have sold Peavine colts are as an open book, they being sold for the high dollar at public auction, along with the colts of other breeds of horses, and I have topped the market.

Breeding saddle horses of the highest type is no longer mere guess work. "Like begets like," and it takes champions to produce champions. Here you have them all in this pedigree. Rex McDonald, Rex Peavine and a double infusion of the champion brood mare sire, Peavine. All Peavine will breed true to his family inheritance of championship blood. He is entered in the Saddle Horse Futurity stake, and do not forget that he sired the only stud colt that got any of the money last year.

I will personally care for mares sent me and use every precaution, but will not be responsible for accidents or escapes. I will also stand another nice stallion at a lower price, and three fine mule-breeding jacks. The Grey jack at $10 to insure living foal, and the two Black jacks at $8 to insure living foal.

ALSO FOR SERVICE

PRESTON, JR.

By Preston 922, first dam Mamie Wilson, by Ogdenburg, second dam Katy Maloy, one of the best show mares the state ever produced. Fee $15. Preston, Jr., is a light bay horse with four white feet to the ankle. Three years old; 15 3-4 hands high, a horse of good conformation, short back, great shoulder, long neck and good foot and bone. Has been handled very little but has style, action and shows great speed. See this horse before you book your mares and I know you will look no further.

Both will make the season at my stable in Crab Orchard, Ky. Will keep mares on grass at $2.50 per month, but will not be responsible for accident or escape of stock. Lien retained on colt until season is paid. Season is due if mares are traded or parted with or bred to other stock.

J. C. BAILEY,

CRAB ORCHARD, KENTUCKY.

DOCK GREY

Shetland pony, 38 inches tall; owned by Hugh Reid Foster will make the season of 1912 at $10 to insure a living colt. He is by an imported pony that cost $1,000 in the Shetland Islands and is regarded by horsemen as the best pony in Kentucky defeating all comers in the show ring of 1903. Lien retained on all colts until season is paid. Mares parted with or bred elsewhere forfeits insurance and money becomes due Will make the season at my farm.

THE FARMERS

For Sale.—Bemis tobacco seller; good as new. P. L. Beck. 27-11.

I will sell at public auction Monday April 8th, county court day, my splendid three-year-old stallion, by Don Varrick, dam a Jay Bird mare. Mrs. Julia Sims, Stanford. 27-2.

I will sell this horse about two o'clock in front of Benzley's stable after the Horse Show.

I will stand a six-year-old jack at my farm on the Prechersville and Stanford pike. He gets good colts and is a sure breeder and will stand at $8.00. H. C. Anderson 22-6p.

Let the Interior Journal print your horse and jack cards. Neat work done promptly at rock bottom prices.

Nice blue grass farm, of 193 acres within two miles of Stanford for sale. Apply to Adolph Von Gruenigan. 22-12

For Sale.—Pair of matched mares five years old, work single or double; also pair of aged mare mules, and a good driving horse, five years old. Will sell either privately or to highest bidder court day. See them at Nunneley's stock pens. S. J. Myers, Stanford. 27-1p.

For Sale.—One brood and work mare and buggy. Will be at Myers House stable Monday if not sold sooner. H. C. Carpenter.

The Lincoln County Farmers Union of the F. E. & C. F. of A. will meet at Stanford courthouse, at 10 A. M., on April 8, 1912. All members and speakers of adjoining counties are fraternally invited to be present. Wm. Landgraf, Sec.

W. M. Dodd will stand a high-class saddle horse at his barn in Hustonville this season. See him here Monday or read his pedigree in next Friday's paper.

JORDAN PEACOCK

Is Added By Dick Scudder to His Stud at McKinney.

Dick Scudder, of McKinney, made a visit to Adair county this week and brought back the celebrated saddle stallion, Jordan Peacock 1148, which he has leased from W. L. Grady, of Gradyville, and will stand this season at his stable at McKinney. Mr. Scudder found that the calls on him for a high class sire were so heavy that he could not accommodate them all with All Peavine, so he determined to secure another high-class stallion, and after looking over the field, concluded that he could find no better than Jordan Peacock, a great show horse, which has sired a large number of winners. Mr. Scudder will have cards out in a few days giving full particulars.

HORSE SHOW DAY

Big Bunch of Handsome Equines Expected Here Monday

A big crowd is expected in Stanford next Monday, County Court day, if the weather is anything like pretty. April Court day is always Horse Show Day. There are no finer saddle or heavy horses found anywhere in the country than are sired and bred right here in Lincoln county, and the handsome fellows will be on exhibition and be put through their paces here that day. The Interior Journal has been kept busy this week, getting out some very handsome cards for a number of breeders, and from present indications the prospects are that this will be a banner year for the horsemen.

The management of the opera house will give two shows, Friday and Saturday nights, that will be pleasing to the show going public. Five thousand feet of moving pictures will be shown. Come and bring your friends. Admission only 5 and 10 cents.

THERE IS REAL PAINT

and also some stuff mixed with cheapening materials that is not worthy of the name. If you have had experience with the latter kind you don't want another. If you haven't take our advice and don't experiment. Buy our real paints and save yourself disappointment and money as well.

Ashland Brook

(No. 41756.)

Vol. 17 A. T. H. R., bred by Eugene Rucker, Georgetown, Ky. Ashland Brook was foaled 1903, solid bay with left hind foot white, 15 3-4 hands high.

Pedigree.—Sired by Silent Brook, No. 19769, record 2:16 1-2, the sire of Margaret Bathgate, 2:11 1-4, Bettie Brook (3) 2:17 3-4; Lady Bellbrooks, 2:17 1-4, Jennie Brook, (4) 2:17 1-4, Elliott Stone 2:18 1-4, Lady Brook, 2:30 and Running Brook 2:30, Silent Brook by Darknight, No. 2858, the sire of Searchlight 2:02 1-4, Brightlight, 2:08 1-4 and Valpa, 2:09 1-2, Darknight sired by Abeyone No. 232 record 2:27. Ashland Brook's 1st dam Bama Wren by Ashland Wilkes, 2:29; record 2:17 1-4, the sire of John R. Hentry, 2:00 1-2, Sally Toler 2:06 1-4; Ashland Wilkes sired by Red Wilkes 1749, he by George Wilkes, second dam, Lida Lilly, by Pretender, 1453, 3d dam by Jim Monroe 835.

Note.—Ashland Brook is a handsome horse with lots of substance and we feel sure in offering to the public the service of him that there are very few his equal, for he has already proven himself to be a breeder unsurpassed, for he is a sire of the kind of horses the public are looking for today. His colts all have good color and have that nice way of going with the speed of trotters. They all possess the looks of a fine saddle horse in fact they meet with few defeats in the show ring. They have perfect manners. Ashland Brook will make the present season at $15 to insure a living colt.

King Eagle

No. 2556.

Vol. 6, A. S. H. R. King Eagle is 16 hands high, dark bay with flowing mane and tail, goes all the gait with plenty of speed, style and action.

Pedigree.—Sired by Royal King 2535 he by On Time, 745, he by Stonewall Jackson 72, Royal King's first dam Mollie Mountz, 3581, was by the noted sire Cabbell's Lexington F. S. Note.—King Eagle is a combined stallion, a breeder of combined horses his colts all have good colors, with size, high style and action. He is also a sire of the most looked for horse today; that is the plantation horse. They all have a nice running walk and their center is perfect. His get are in demand and always bring the highest prices. King Eagle will make the present season at the low price of $15 to insure a living colt.

WAR TRACE

We will also stand the great young Jack War Trace at $10 for mares and $20 for jennets to insure a living colt. War Trace is black with white points 15 1-2 hands high. He was sired by Great Eastern II he by imp. Tax Payer that sold for $3,200. His dam was by the imp. Great Eastern. War Trace's dam by Bedford Star, he by Ezell Starlight.

Note.—This jack has proven himself to be a great breeder for mules for his colts sold last fall as high as $110 horse mule colts to $125 for mare mules, so you see in offering the service of this great jack, we are offering one that is second to none. This jack has also proven himself to be a great jennet jack, for he has the finest head and ear, and as much foot and bone as any jack living and as like begets like, he has departed the same to his jack and jennet colts.

EQUITY.

We will also offer for public service this great 16-hand Jack. He is black with white points. His head and ear, foot and bone are second to none, with style and action like a mule. He is sired by Yelberton, Jr., first dam by Dr. Wood, second dam by imported jack, Yelberton, Jr., the sire of Equity is now at the head of Mr. T. B. Adams' herd of jennets, at Lexington, Ky.

In offering this jack for public service we feel sure we are offering a great breeder for competent judges say that he was the best breeder in Montgomery county, his colts always bringing the highest prices.

This great jack will make the present season at $10 for mares and $20 for jennets to insure a living colt. All of the above mentioned stock will make the present season of 1912 at our stable 2 1-2 miles west of Stanford on the Shelby City pike. Mares traded, parted with or bred elsewhere without our consent forfeits the insurance and money becomes due at time of such transaction. For information call on or address S. T. Harris & Robert Woods, Phone 72-Ring 3, Stanford, Ky.
